Auburndale Police to Hold First Citizen Police Academy

The Auburndale Police Department will hold its first Citizens' Police Academy beginning in early August. The Citizens' Police Academy will be presented in eighteen sessions on Tuesday evenings from 6:30pm to 9:30pm. The first class will begin August 5, 2008 and will conclude December 2, 2008.

The Citizens' Police Academy will introduce the participants to various functions and provide comprehensive information about the operations of the Auburndale Police Department. The information provided will foster a better relationship with the community and create a more informed body of citizens.

Members of the Auburndale Police Department will be providing instruction in many topics to include, the history of law enforcement, complaints and internal investigations, crime scene, gangs & drugs, traffic crash investigations, code enforcement, domestic violence, DUI investigations, criminal law and many others.

The Auburndale Police Department Citizen Police Academy is free of charge and is open to adults 18 years of age and older. Applications are available on the City of Auburndale website www.auburndalefl.com and at the police department. Applications will be accepted through July 1, 2008. Applicants will be subject to a background check.

For more information, contact Sergeant Mike Peterson at (863) 965-5555.
