Auburndale Police Investigating Stabbing

Investigators with the Auburndale Police Department are investigating an overnight stabbing where one person was killed, Michael Lynn Herrin, W/M 5-1-1966 last know address of 104 Bridget Lane in Auburndale. Police received a call from the possible suspect in the stabbing at approximately 1:23am advising of an altercation and stabbing at 723 Sunset Avenue in Auburndale. Investigators have this person in custody and are interviewing him further. Investigators have determined Herrin and the possible suspect do know each other.

From early investigation it appears there was an altercation at the residence that ended with Herrin being stabbed. Investigators are working to determine if the stabbing was in self-defense.

Investigators are not releasing the name of the possible suspect at this time due to pending investigation.

More to follow when available.
